Hi Nick –

Just to confirm our phone conversation this afternoon and to clear up any confusion that may have transpired – you have, in the past, witnessed the signing of agreements involving the relevant parties (including stock purchase agreements), but are not certain whether you witnessed the signing of the Stock Purchase Agreement detailing a sale of stock from Paula Fruman to Joann Lunn that was to be the subject of your proposed affidavit. If this is accurate, please confirm; such confirmation will obviate any need for you to sign an affidavit on this topic.

Many thanks,

Megan

Sorry...I sent that too soon; was interrupted by a call...

If you have any questions, give me a call. I'm in conference; out at 3:00.

Hi Megan,

When you originally called, a male attorney (I've forgotten his name) informed me that he was working on the estate of Jeff Fruman. This was a shock to me; I wasn't aware that he had passed.

I then recall you being introduced as being in on the call. I don't recall a third person being introduced; I wasn't aware there was a third person on the call.

In any event, I recall being asked whether I recalled Paula Fruman signing a Stockholder Agreement. I do recall that, but as I mentioned in our call today, I don't recall as to whether that was in March of 2012, or earlier.

Nick,

Via a telephone call on Friday, April 5, you, Sarah Allen and I discussed the Stock Purchase Agreement ("Agreement") dated February 18, 2012 related to JT Electronics Corp., during which you stated that you drafted the Agreement and that the Agreement was signed in your presence by both Paula Fruman and Joann Lunn. During the call between you and I today, you stated that the Agreement may have been signed on or around March 7, 2012, but that you no longer recall whether the document was signed by Paula and/or Joann in your presence. If this is correct, can you please confirm the same to me in writing by responding to this email?

Many thanks,

Megan
